Colorado's Royal Gorge Cabins Offer a Winter-Season Mountain Adventure That's Not All About Skiing

CAÑON CITY, Colo., Oct. 20, 2022 - Although the Royal Gorge Cabins are located just 10 minutes from Cañon City and an hour from Colorado Springs, they feel like they are worlds away from civilization. And that's just the ticket for winter vacationers who crave dark skies, cozy fires and non-skiing winter adventures.

Open year-round, the luxurious one- and two-bedroom Royal Gorge Cabins are especially popular among travelers seeking a quiet getaway or a change of scenery for remote work. There are also two rental homes for larger groups - the three-bedroom Echo House and five-bedroom Piñon House.

The recently opened Piñon House is popular with groups.

All cabins have expansive southwest-facing views of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. The living areas include a fully equipped galley-style kitchen, flat-screen television, eat-in granite bar and leather sofas. A highlight of each cabin is an ambiance-maximizing double-sided gas fireplace that can be enjoyed inside and outside and 400 square feet of outdoor living space.

The region is known as “Colorado’s Banana Belt.” With typically moderate winter-season temperatures - sometimes as warm as 60 degrees, but nearly always in the 40s and 50s - and plenty of sunshine, the Royal Gorge Region is within an hour of Colorado Springs and two hours of Denver.

“We built these with the needs of patio-sitters, stargazers and late sleepers and book-readers in mind,” said Andy Neinas, owner of Royal Gorge Cabins and Echo Canyon River Expeditions, one of the oldest and largest tourism companies in the Royal Gorge region. “And if our guests do get restless and want to explore, they’ll have lots of choices around here.”

The cabins are located within minutes of seasonal attractions in the region such as the Royal Gorge Bridge & Park, the Dinosaur Experience, Winery at Holy Cross Abbey, fly fishing in the Arkansas River, soaking in nearby hot springs and hiking.

If guests do want to get some skiing in, the Breckenridge Ski Resort is less than two hours away, added Neinas, an avid skier.

From now until the beginning of rafting season in April, one-bedroom king cabins start at $419, two-bedroom king cabins start at $489, the Echo House starts at $489 and the Piñon House starts at $950. Rates are higher on weekends and holidays.

Reservations for the cabins can be made online at www.royalgorgecabins.com or by calling 1-800-748-2953.

Royal Gorge Cabins is situated across the street from the headquarters of Echo Canyon River Expeditions and the 8 Mile Bar and Grill, a seasonal restaurant that is open during rafting season. Located just five miles from the Royal Gorge Bridge & Park and close to many other historic and natural attractions, the resort was named one of the top adventure resorts in the country.
