Travel Agent Commissions Available for New Royal Gorge Cabins and Glamping Tents

CANON CITY, Colo., Nov. 28, 2017 - Although best-known for summer-season whitewater rafting, central Colorado's Royal Gorge region is a year-round tourism destination with a wide range of client-pleasing activities. And travel agents are making that discovery.

With a foray into high-end accommodations with the opening of the Royal Gorge Cabins and Glamping Tents, Central Colorado's Echo Canyon River Expeditions is helping agents sell extended stays in this adventure-rich mountain region.

The cabins, glamping tents and rafting are all commissionable to travel agents.

Open year-round, the cabins are equipped with kitchens, indoor/outdoor fireplaces and plenty of living space, and they offer visitors an appealing place to spend the night after a day of adventure. A highlight of each cabin is an ambiance-maximizing double-sided gas fireplace that can be enjoyed inside and outside and 400 square feet of outdoor living space featuring drought-tolerant plantings such as blue fescue and Karl Forster grasses.

Each cabin also offers two private parking spaces, covered entry way, hammock and outdoor grills. All of the cabins have expansive southwest-facing views of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains.

During the winter, rates start at $319 for single cabins and $379 for cabins with two bedrooms.

“Until we opened our cabins and glamping tents this past May, many visitors would come to the Royal Gorge region in the morning for rafting or other adventures and then drive back home the same day,” said Andy Neinas, owner of Echo Canyon. “With the option of these luxurious affordable accommodations, many visitors are staying and playing in the region longer and discovering why Echo Canyon River Expeditions was named one of the top adventure resorts in the nation.”

The cabins are located within minutes of the historic town of Cañon City as well as year-round attractions such as the Royal Gorge Route Railroad, the Royal Gorge Bridge & Park, the Dinosaur Experience, Winery at Holy Cross Abbey, fly fishing in the Arkansas River, rock climbing, golf, jeep touring and hiking.

The region is known as Colorado’s “Banana Belt.” With typically moderate winter-season temperatures - sometimes as warm as 60 degrees, but nearly always in the 40s and 50s - and plenty of sunshine.

This microclimate occurs because the Arkansas River Valley on the lee side of the mountains and the upslope and downslope winds divert moisture away from the region.
